

Says

What have we heard them say?
What can we imagine them saying?

Thinks

What are their wants, needs, hopes, and dreams?
What other thoughts might influence their behavior?

Problem statement:
1.Management of heart failure can be very complex and is often unique to each patient

4.The lack of health care provided training on disability has been highlighted in recent literature

2.Prevention of accute exacerbations can slow the progression of heart failure as well as increases the safety and overall well being of patient in healthcare

3. When a patient who has accute congestive heart failure is readmitted, the cost and burden to the patient as well as facility increases in health care.

5. Healthcare provider can promote inclusive health, the inclusive of people ID in healthcare services.

6. A doctor as well as who is sensitive to patients suffering can connect with them on a much deeper level.

HEALTHCARE REPRESENTATIVE

Short summary of the persona

Group Ideas:
1. Group building ideas for healthcare professionals are exercises, activities and games that build morale and keep healthcare employees positive and engaged

2. The purpose of these activites is to build healthcare teams that are motivated to best serve patients

4.As a result, health care leaders must engage in fun and meaningful team building exercises and activites with their teams

5. Communication activities for healthcare workers, Nurses and doctors

6.These are directly involved in caring for the patient. They usually consist of team leaders and members who are direct-care providers such as Nurses, dentist, Pharmacist and Doctors

3. It is not uncommon for healthcare professionals to feel stress and fatigue when under constant pressure

Does

What behavior have we observed?
What can we imagine them doing?

Feels

What are their fears, frustrations, and anxieties?
What other feelings might influence their behavior?